MEMORANDUM FOR: Executive Director

THROUGH: Director of Personnel

FROM: Director, Office of Legislative Liaison

SUBJECT: Award of CIA Medallion to Mr. James Bush

1. This is to request the award of the CIA Medallion to Mr. James Bush, Professional Staff Member, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (HPSCI). Mr. Bush has worked closely with the Agency during his tenure with HPSCI from October 1977 to the present. The inscription should read: "With grateful appreciation for all your efforts on behalf of the Central Intelligence Agency."

2. Mr. Bush, who has functioned since the Committee's inception as the staff budgetary authority on the Committee, has participated directly in the authorization bill process each year since that process began. As such he has provided invaluable advice and assistance to Agency planners and managers responsible for developing the annual intelligence authorization bill. Mr. Bush brings to this position a wealth of experience and expertise garnered during many years of Federal service.

3. If approved, we would propose to have the award presented to Mr. Bush at a formal ceremony in the Director's Conference Room with a luncheon hosted by Deputy Director John McMahon.

Attached is a resume on Jim Bush. It should be of help in your presentation of the Agency medallion to him at tomorrow's lunch. I might add that I believe he deserves the highest recognition for his ability to put a dollar figure on human collection. It was this he was requested to do when the HPSCI was first set up and he was able to show the highest return of human intelligence for each dollar spent.
